

Estudios Interdisciplinarios de América Latina y el Caribe – E.I.A.L

Current editor(s) and email address for queries: Nahuel Ribke eial@post.tau.ac.il

Prof. Raanan Rein, Tel Aviv University

Dr. Gerardo Leibner, Tel Aviv University

Dr. Ori Preuss, Tel Aviv University

Website: www7.tau.ac.il/ojs/index.php/eial

Publisher: Instituto Sverdlin de Historia y Cultura de América Latina, Universidad de Tel Aviv

Frequency of publication: Biannual

Articles published per year: 10-14

Minimum and maximum length of articles: 8.000

Languages of submission: Spanish, English and Portuguese

Translation policy: No translation of accepted papers

Peer review process: After screening by editor, articles are sent to two or three external referees for peer review

Approximate acceptance rate: 30%

Disciplines covered: The history and culture of Latin America and the Caribbean during the 19th and 20th centuries

Quantitative-qualitative balance: 20-80

Editorial philosophy: EIAL publishes original research, focusing on all aspects of the history and culture of Latin America and the Caribbean during the 19th, 20th and 21st centuries. Every year, one of the two issues is devoted to a specific subject, which is previously announced, while the other issue comprises articles on a variety of themes. One issue is usually published in January and the other in June.

Use of photographs or graphics: Monochrome

Are proposals for special guest-edited thematic issues considered? Occasionally yes