

Problemas del Desarrollo. Revista Latinoamericana de Economía

Current editor(s) and email address for queries: Alicia Girón, revprode@unam.mx

Website: www.probdes.iiec.unam.mx/

Publisher: National Autonomous University of Mexico

Is the journal open access

What type of open access? Full Open Access

Do authors pay a fee for publication? No

Where is the journal indexed? Journal of Economic Literature (JEL); Latindex; CLASE (Citas Latinoamericanas en Ciencias Sociales y Humanidades); HAPI (Hispanic American Periodicals Index); Ulrichsweb; SCImago Journal & Country Rank; Academic Journal Catalogue, York University Inc.; Cite Factor; Redalyc (Red de Revistas Científicas de América Latina, el Caribe, España y Portugal); SciVerse Scopus; SciELO Citation Index de la Web of Science (Thomson Reuters); SciELO México; Science Direct de Elsevier; Índice de Revistas Mexicanas de Investigación Científica y Tecnológica del CONACYT.

Frequency of publication: Quarterly

Articles published per year: 28

Minimum and maximum length of articles: 7,000-9,000 words

Languages of submission: English, Spanish, Portuguese, French

Translation policy: All articles appear in the print edition in Spanish; no translation is requested until articles receive final acceptance. Since 2012, our articles are translated into English. We have an English edition on the Web: www.probdes.iiec.unam.mx/en/index.php

Peer review process: Articles are subject to 2-3 external referees.

Approximate acceptance rate: 50%

Disciplines covered: Economic development, Latin American economy.

Editorial philosophy: The main objective has been to reflect upon and discuss issues relating to economic development, to provide the theory of development with its own direction, and to challenge orthodox views.

Use of photographs or graphics: Monochrome in print version; colour online.

Are proposals for special guest-edited thematic issues considered? No

Other special features of the journal: The Mexican research council, CONACYT, has recognised the journal as a high-quality scientific research journal for the next five years.

Social media presence: We have webpage, Facebook page, and this journal is in SciELO database.

Planned future developments: To work very hard on an electronic version for iPads. We have the first issues in our main webpage.