Manuscript submission guidelines

The primary form of submission is a Word document via e-mail to lap@ucr.edu with the subject line “Author Name - manuscript submission.” Manuscripts should be no longer than 8,000 words, double-spaced, in English, Spanish, Portuguese, or French. LAP translates accepted non-English manuscripts. Include a cover sheet with the author’s name, contact information, affiliations, an abstract of 150 words, and five keywords.

Please see www.latinamericanperspectives.com for Style Guidelines (under the “Submit to LAP” tab where current calls for manuscripts, additional submission information, and description of the review process are also available). Manuscripts should be original work not previously published in English in the same or similar form. Submission of a manuscript implies commitment to publish in the journal. Authors submitting manuscripts to LAP should not simultaneously submit them to another journal. Manuscripts and inquiries may also be sent to the Managing Editor, Latin American Perspectives, P.O. Box 5703, Riverside, CA 92517-5703.

“Latin American Perspectives is an indispensable resource for scholars, students, and participants who wish to be on the cusp of current trends, analyses, theoretical discussion, and debate from a critical perspective on Latin America. From social movements and political economy, to culture, revolution, race/ethnicity, feminism, ecology, and more, it’s all there in this unique journal.

William I. Robinson,
University of California Santa Barbara

Durante más de 40 años Latin American Perspectives ha sido una ventana a América Latina, abierta al pensamiento crítico y a los diálogos interdisciplinarios. Ninguna otra revista de habla inglesa ha logrado incorporar como autores y editores a tantos intelectuales latinoamericanos. Su publicación bi-mensual ha sido fundamental para mantener los diálogos académicos y políticos entre el norte y el sur de las Américas.
